Dear Friend:

Received your most welcomed letter & was indeed glad to learn that you & Flora are getting along so nicely. I received a letter from Flora a few days ago & she wrote me that you received the 1st letter I sent you also about that night at our home. Now I did not mean to cause so much excitement & will promise not to do it again. Ha! Ha! I am afraid I won't know that his & Brother of mine when I get back. I will feel like a father that just came to town to ride my brother George with all those swell clothes. Well, he won't have so many when I take all my shirts & ties away from him. Ha! Ha! You know that is
